Membership Matters by Michelle Blasberg

Dues Renewal

It is time to renew your AAUW membership for fiscal year 2023. AAUW National has changed the process this year, and National will not be sending out email invoices for the renewal. There are still two ways to renew: via credit card at aauw.org, or by check mailed to Michelle Blasberg and she will renew your membership.

Dues for 2023 are $104.00, $64 of which are tax deductible. The breakdown of charges is:

- $67.00 National Dues
- $20.00 State Dues
- $17.00 Branch Dues

Included in this month's Adelante is a form that can be used to mail in your dues to Michelle Blasberg, and it also contains instructions to renew on-line at AAUW.org.

Your quick attention to this is appreciated.

Joint IBC Meeting on June 25 by Harriet Gerza

Please join us for this wonderful event where we gather with all our sister branches and swap stories, activities and hear a great speaker, Erica M Pinto, Chair for Jamul Indian Village of California, who will give us an overview of her tribe's background and current activities.

We are looking forward to seeing members from all the branches at the Shadowridge Country Club in Vista. Harriet Gerza will be coordinating carpools if you are interested in attending. Just send in your rsvp and lunch option – see flyer. There will be several of us attending so we can get a table together. See you there!

Public Policy by Harriet Gerza

The June primaries are coming! Many of you have already received information from the Registrar of Voter's office listing the candidates in preparation for the election. It's confusing to say the least. Here are some excerpts from the League of Women Voters newsletter. Lucky for us their Voter Empowerment Chair is a member of our branch. Likely, we will have Jeanne come talk to us again to explain what happened in the redistricting process.

Voter Empowerment by Jeanne Weidner, League of Women Voters, Voters Registration Chair

California is one of the nine states in the country where independent commissions were responsible for drawing congressional district lines, a process recommended by the League of Women Voters of the US. The 2020 California Citizens Redistricting Commission completed their work at the end of last year, and established new maps based on the data from the 2020 Census. The final maps include congressional, state senate, state assembly and board of equalization districts. Some of the highlights of that process include:

- The state lost a congressional district for the first time in its history, based on its slower population growth compared to other states in the country.
- Because the commission consisted of members of both major parties and non-party members, partisan considerations were not a factor in the final decision.
- The final decision was not based on current district lines and resulted in no more than a one-person difference between districts.
- The federal Voting Rights Act requires that a minority group's vote must be taken into consideration, so to accomplish this, the commission considered Communities of Interest (COI) in drawing lines.
- Due to social media and advances in technology, advocacy groups and other citizens were able provide valuable feedback and to submit their own maps in real time.

To help review the updates on who is the candidate in your area. Check out the Voter's Edge.

After a two-year hiatus, Voter's Edge is again serving as KPBS's voter guide! The publicity from this partnership will make local voters more aware of this excellent, non-partisan election research tool from the League—and will make local candidates more inclined to prioritize completing their profiles.

In order to make our election guide as comprehensive as possible before ballots hit mailboxes in early May, the San Diego County Voter's Edge team of six hardworking volunteers has been persistently encouraging 108 local candidates to fill out their free candidate profiles. We have also been adding news coverage, candidate forum announcements and videos, selected campaign finance info, and nonpartisan resources such as the San Diego County Bar Association's ratings of judicial candidates.

You can help to make Voter's Edge a more valuable voter education tool for yourself and others:

1. Go to votersedge.org now and enter your address to look up your ballot choices.
2. Use the email link beneath the photo area of each blank profile, to encourage non-participating candidates to submit their info.

Travel Group

by Pam Ames

Our group met in April at Creme de la Crepe. In June we'll be dining at Saffron Thai on India Street on Friday, June 17 at 1:00 p.m. Carpooling will be from the Scripps Poway Parkway/Yanni's Park and Ride at 12:30 p.m. If you would like to attend, be sure to rsvp to pamames123@gmail.com. Gardens and More by Joan Natoli, Coordinator

On Friday, June 3 at 10:00 a.m. we'll visit the Japanese Friendship Garden for a tour (hopefully with a docent) and lunch. The entry fee is $12. If you'd like to carpool, meet at the Park and Ride on Carmel Mountain Road opposite Freeport Rd at 9:15 a.m. Please rsvp between May 28-June 1 to Joan Natoli at 559-303-2382 or itolanj@sbcglobal.net.

Tech Trek Update by Heidi Dalvie, Ellen Dillon, Debbie Lewis, Co-Coordinators

Tech Trek selection letters were sent to seven local girls. They are all happy to be chosen to attend the camp!

We rely heavily on our school liaison and teachers in making camper referrals. To offer our thanks, we presented each of them with a beautiful, blooming potted plant. Their efforts certainly make our jobs easier.

Tech Trek camp will be virtual this year at UCSD, but each girl receives a robotics kit with all necessary supplies, so they don't need to purchase anything. We coordinate the pick-up and distribution of all the kits and always enjoy meeting the girls in person at that time to answer any final camp questions. Over 200 girls across California have signed up to attend the virtual Tech Trek camp this year.

The exact schedule of camp courses and activities is still being finalized, but we expect it to be similar to last year. If any of you wish to volunteer for Tech Trek this year, here are the details:

- Virtual Camp Dates: June 19 – 24 and July 24 – 29
- Volunteer positions: Build Coach, Social Coach, Workshop Coach
- There will be job descriptions posted and online training available for all positions before the camp.
- How do I apply? Go to <https://www.aauw-ca.org/2022-virtual-camp/>
- You can look over the preliminary schedule and complete the "Volunteer Application" form.

Feel free to contact us if you have any questions!

Grape Expectations Visits Vineyard Grant James in June by

Janice Heather

Calling all wine lovers, mark your calendars for our branch's next wine tasting outing on Friday, June 24, 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. at Vineyard Grant James in Ramona, 25260 East Old Julian Highway. <https://www.vineyardgrantjames.com/>

For more information on carpooling or to reserve a spot, rsvp to Janice Heather at janiceheather@hotmail.com. Hope to see you there! 🍷

AAUW Fund by Lynne Batchelor, Secretary, AAUW Fund Committee Chair

The AAUW Fund Committee is proud to announce that the 2022 State Named Gift Honoree is Mary Isaac, aka "Dr. Mimi" to the Tech Trek community. She was nominated for this honor by Randa Blanding from our Communications Committee. Randa introduced Mary at the Annual Meeting by saying, "This year's California Named Gift Honoree has only been an AAUW member for a few years. Mary is a member of the La Mesa El Cajon Branch! She saw a need and stepped in with her passion, organizing and directing skills, and created a team that implemented a virtual Tech Trek for the past two years and again this year has been the impetus for hundreds of changed young women, who will in turn, because of this experience, have positive repercussions on many others." Congratulations Dr. Mimi on this well-deserved honor.

Congratulations to the top 10 branches for total contributions: San Francisco Inc, Marin Inc, San Jose, Carlsbad-Oceanside-Vista, La Mesa-El Cajon (two branches from San Diego County!), Hayward-Castro Valley Inc, Long Beach Inc, Danville-Alamo-Walnut Creek, Orinda-Moraga-Lafayette Inc, and Sacramento.

Congratulations as well to all the Branch Named Gift Honoree winners. (See following article) Thank you so much for everything you do for your branches. If you contributed $100 or more and have not received a certificate, notify your branch Fund chair who can download it from our website.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the AAUW Fund. We raised nearly half a million dollars in California.

AAUW-PP Fund Honorees by Pamela Meyer, AAUW Fund Chair

Congratulations to our AAUW Fund Honorees! Our branch donated $3136 to AAUW fund in the 2021. For each $750 we donate, we can honor one of our own. This year we honor Cathy Burciaga, Janice Heather, Sheila Walker, and Adrienne Peterson. Cathy, Janice, and Sheila have held the offices of president and program vice presidents for the last three years and have helped us get through the pandemic with strong leadership and interesting programs. Adrienne Peterson has brought a professional quality to our newsletter for the last five years. We honor these women for a job well done. We will present the certificates at the May general meeting. See you then!

CA State Speech Trek Winner! by

Karen McGurk

On Saturday, April 30th, AAUW-CA held its annual meeting which included the finals in the statewide Speech Trek Competition. Our branch's candidate, Kristine Sy, was awarded FIRST PLACE!

We were fortunate to have Kristine and two guests attend the branch's General Meeting on Saturday, May 14th. In addition, we had the pleasure of meeting her coach, Gloria Ing, who had mentored two previous branch winners – Dominique Ruedaflores and Jay Wang. Gloria shared an update on the previous winners and thanked the branch for our support of the youth in our community.

Kristine's presentation of her winning speech was so impressive. She was poised, articulate, and persuasive. It was obvious why she won the state competition. We were so fortunate to see and hear her in person.

A special thank you to our committee members – Honorine Nocon, Michelle Blasberg, Jeanni Harrison, Miriam Lauff, Joan Thompson, Pam Ames, Harriet Gerza, Ellie Slade, Sheila Walker, Cathy Burciaga and Marie Dye for their efforts to make this program so successful. Two state winners in 4 years! Amazing!

Games Group Plays a Murder Mystery by Debbie Boyd, Games Group Leader

The Games Group is always up to something fun, and last month they played a Murder Mystery game with the theme "Stayin' Alive." Naturally, the murder takes place in a disco during the late 70's and features well known personalities such as John Revolting and Gloria Stunнем. ☺

Stayin' Alive

Story Line: This mystery occurs in 1979 at the trendy Studio Manhattan, a chic and glamorous New York discotheque frequented by the rich and famous. Tonight's exclusive crowd of celebrities is feverishly dancing the Hustle to the throbbing rhythmic beat of disco.

The music stops abruptly when the club's owner, Jackie Fever, is found murdered in her back office. The flamboyant Ms. Fever was fatally stabbed — obviously by someone she knew. You be a suspect!

THE SUSPECTS ARE:

John Revolting: New York City's reigning Disco Dance Champion, John is at the club to demonstrate his crowd-dazzling new version of the Bump. Athletic and handsome, Revolting seems to be missing all the right moves in his quest for dance perfection.
Costume Suggestions: Polyester suit, shirt with wide collar, unbuttoned to below chest, gold jewelry, 70's style shoes

Diana Rush: Chart-topping songstress Diana Rush is at Studio Manhattan to celebrate her new single "Won't Be Missing You". At the peak of her musical career, Diana has record company executives lining up at her door and fans screaming out her name.
Costume Suggestions: Glittering dress, platform shoes, lots of jewelry, Sony Walkman

Andy Warthog: A hip new artist creating quite a stir in the art world, Andy has streaked his hair with paint and achieved celebrity status by painting portraits of trendy objects such as pet rocks and soda bottles. He knows everything and everyone deserves at least 15 minutes of fame.
Costume Suggestions: Shirt with paint splatters, 70's style eyeglass frames, unkempt hair and jeans.

Gloria Stunнем: An outspoken leader in the feminist movement, Gloria moved to New York to publish an exciting new women's magazine called "Sisterhood". Her burning passion is to teach women how to take control of their lives.
Costume Suggestions: Gloria believes women can be both independent and sexy. She dresses provocatively with a low-cut gown and stylish shoes.

Bruce Leap: An international movie star and martial arts expert, Bruce is in New York to promote his latest movie, Feet of Fury. Bruce, skilled in the use of every martial arts weapon known to man, insists he is a master of self-discipline and never loses his temper. Aieeee!
Costume Suggestions: white martial arts clothing (bare-chest optional)

Lyza M: Professional dancer, singer and Broadway producer, this lady has it all. Lyza is highly talented and loves to be center stage in every crowd. When not working, Lyza is the ultimate party girl and can be found in one of New York's hot spots almost every night of the week.
Costume Suggestions: Short skirt with dark tights. Loads of costume jewelry and colorful makeup.
